New Horizons

We dream of tomorrow
and remember yesterday.
But most of our thoughts
lie just in today.
And every day we find . . .
a new horizon.

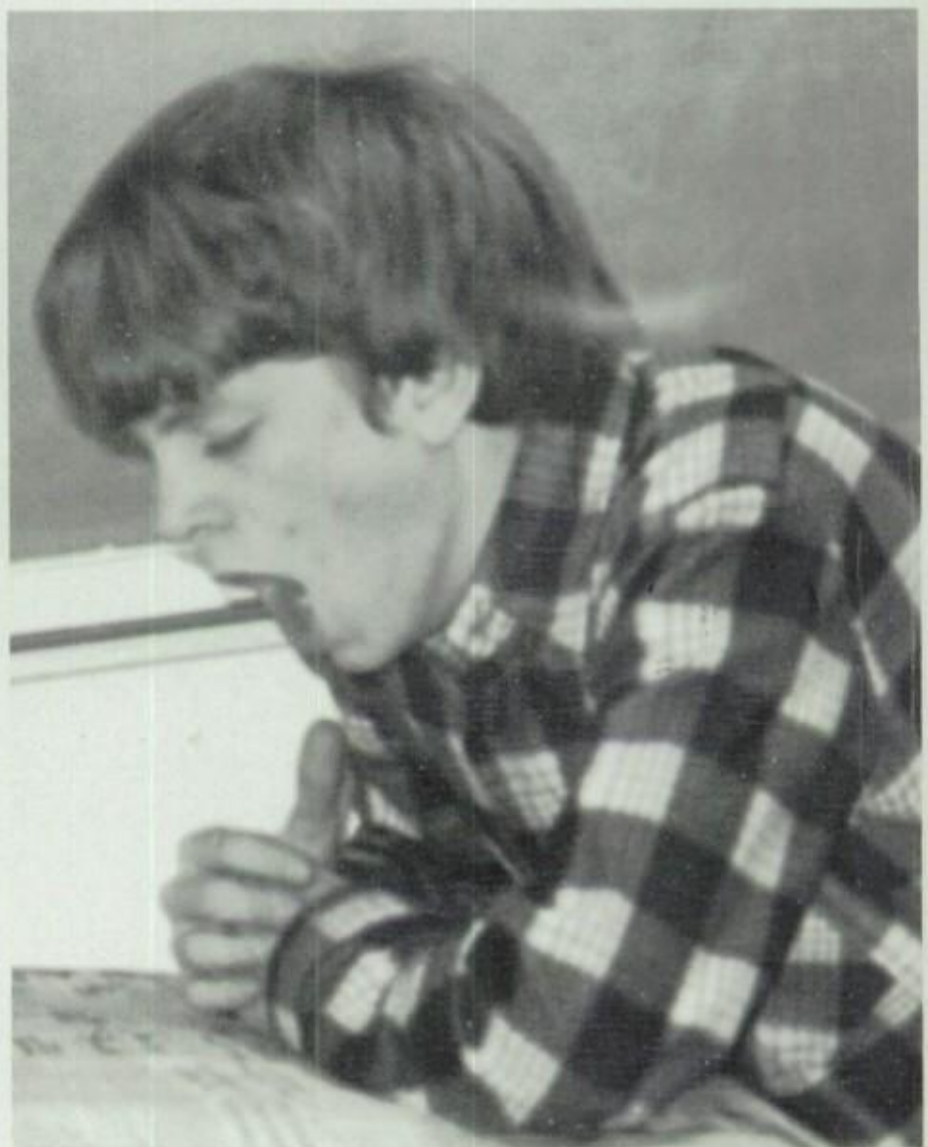

All the familiar faces
in all the familiar places
seem to make us smile
and make life most worthwhile.
And every day we find . . .
a new horizon.

We laugh through the fun times
and work through the hard times.
With winning in our souls
we strive to reach our goals.
And every day we find . . .
a new horizon.

Our tears of joy and laughter
will never be erased.
And all the special people
will never be replaced.
And every day we find . . .
a new horizon.

Peeking above the ground,
we see the bright sun rays.
And as we watch it rise,
we remember yesterdays.
Soon the sun appears
high above the ground.
And once again, our new horizon
finally has been found.
